Men Will Go Gunning But— Hundreds of Women Will Go Hunting For Thanksgiving Suits and Coats This Week

The world cannot get along without people who do things well "in a pinch."

The fact is, it could use a deal more of them in its business.

This, the week before Thanksgiving, finds many a woman "in a pinch," as to the clothes and outfitting which up to now she had "Oh, heaps of time to buy."

These women need the store that can serve well, "in a pinch."

This is the store, the store of the shoe-button, as well as the whole garment.

The Salon of Dress on the Second Floor, around which all this business grew up, is now supposed to be the model clothing store of the state, in layout, equipment and capacity for the good serving.

The service that made all this possible is here in good plenty.

Plenty of compensation, too, for the women that are hunting today.

At $12.75 there are many dresses of serge and silk combination and a few Charmeuse and Taffeta's in black, Navy blue and green in the lot of splendid styles.

At $16.75 are a dozen or so of evening gowns in Pastel shades.

At $23.50 each, young women's suits, mostly one and two's of a style, in a variety of colors, and models collected from $25.00 and $29.50 to $35.00 assortment and put into one group for a clear-away.

A Gay Stripe Pussy Willow Taffeta Blouse $5. New!

NOW IS THE TIME

This is the Day We Begin Selling Thanksgiving Linens at 20 Per Cent. Discount Homes, Hotels and Institutions Please Take Notice

Here we are doing the busiest kind of linen business along normal lines, selling every day dozens and sometimes hundreds of yards to Clarksburg homes and institutions.

Several years ago at Thanksgiving time we started these 20 per cent off sales, and we made special efforts with our importers and they have turned over to us several hundred yards of the very same kind of linens we are doing such a good business with.

They were bought at a price that enabled us to sell them to you at 20c saving on each dollar, in addition to these special purchases are included all linens in our stock.

Every piece double width, sound, staple and reliable—no sale of bargain linen—narrow widths, mercerized linens, which is all cotton—but you may safely rely on never getting anything of this sort at Parsons-Souders.

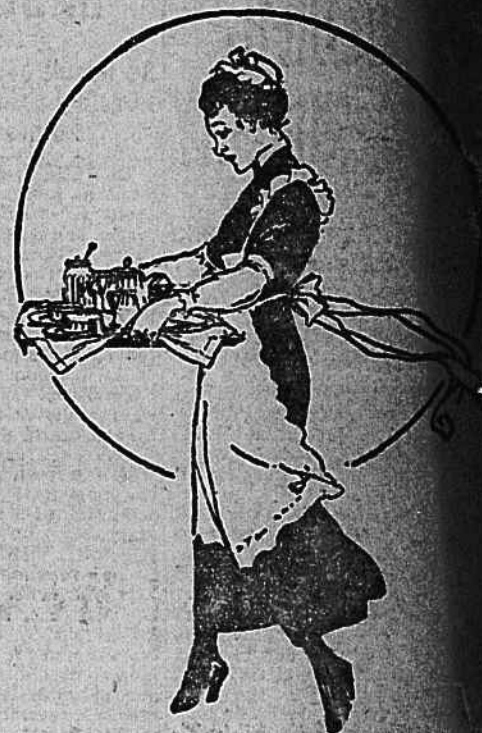

The reductions are—

How to Split a Short Cake.

Almost every housewife knows how troublesome it is to split either short cake or a loaf cake without having it heavy and soggy, and especially is this so when the cake is hot. It is managed in this way: As soon as the cake is taken from the oven make a slight incision with a sharp knife where you want the cake divided. In this insert a strong thread and by holding one end in each hand draw the thread gently backward and forward until you have the cake divided to your satisfaction.

Saves a Dry Mop.

Take a piece of outing flannel one-half yard long. Fold it to make a bag, sew up seam at bottom and one side. The fold forms the other side edge. Turn in open end and make hem one-half inch wide. Through this run a tape. Place this on your broom, and for those having no dry mop it answers the purpose as well as gives it a polish. Floors around art squares are easily kept looking well by this method.
